HONGKONG, APRIL 26TH 1909.

In the comprehensive review of events of the past year affecting the commerce and shipping of Hongkong presented in the speech which the Hon. Mr. E. A. HEWITT, as President of the Chamber of Commerce delivered at the annual meeting of members on Friday a reference was made to the tendency shown in recent years for shipping to "decentralise." Whereas formerly, Mr. Hewitt said, the bulk of the Far Eastern trade centred in Hongkong, three ports in China, and three in Japan, whence coasting steamers fed the ocean liners with export cargo, and distributed at smaller ports along the coast the cargoes brought out by the ocean carriers of freight, there is now a very noticeable readiness on the part of shipowners to send their ocean steamers to other ports; and steamers are now being loaded direct for Europe and America at ports whose names were hardly known to the outside world a few years ago, or which then did not exist. This decentralisation, as Mr. Hewitt said, must increase as these other ports afford increased facilities by the development of railway connections with the interior, and other improvements calculated to attract shipping. "This movement," added the Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce, "cannot but be encouraged if the Government of Hongkong persists in what I cannot but describe as a suicidal policy of increasing the reliance on shipping when they should rather be doing all in their power to attract shipping to the port, and not drive it away."

The tendency on which Mr. Hewitt commented is one which we have noted for some time past, but when we have turned to the shipping statistics of the port we have failed to find the support we expected for the belief that Hongkong must be suffering from this new movement. Yet it cannot be denied that an immense amount of cargo which was formerly transhipped at Hongkong, requiring for longer or shorter periods large godown accommodation, and affording employment to hundreds of persons, now passes by our doors. Rice and tea may be mentioned as concrete instances. According to the latest published report of the Superintendent of Imports and Exports, more than one half the exports recorded in 1907 passed through the port without breaking bulk. But when we consult the returns with a view to learning what effect this decentralising tendency has had upon the tonnage and the number of ships entering and clearing at Hongkong, what do we find? We find the Harbour Master saying that the shipping statistics for 1907 (the latest published) form a record for Hongkong and exceed those of any port in the world! As compared with the returns of the previous year, ocean vessels under the British flag showed an increase of 59 ships of 26,698 tons, while foreign ocean vessels showed an increase of 374 ships of 627,380 tons, wholly due to the Japanese firms increasing their carrying trade. Under this flag an increase of 455 ships of 976,450 tons is found, with a general falling off under other flags.

While, however, the net result, showing as it does that Hongkong continued down to the end of 1907 at least, to maintain its pre-eminence among the seaports of the world, in spite of the tendency of shipping to decentralise, it affords no excuse for ignoring Mr. Hewitt's warning to the Government against persisting in a policy of taxing shipping for improvements which benefit the whole business community. What we have to bear in mind is that were it not for this tendency to decentralise, the shipping statistics of Hongkong would be much larger than they actually are, and when there is any question of increasing the charges on the vessels frequenting the port it is well that the Government should be forcibly reminded of this increasing tendency to distribute shipping favours, as well as of the fact that the prosperity of the Colony and the maintenance of its reputation and position as the great distributing centre for South China, is almost wholly dependent on the Colony's ability to attract shipping. By-and-by when the New Territory has actually become the great industrial centre that we hope it may become, and when we have the railway bringing to our port heavy freights from the interior of China, the future of the port will be more securely established, but meanwhile—that is to say, for many years yet to come—its prosperity will be menaced by the keen competition in the shipping world which is producing the changes to which Mr. Hewitt very appositely alluded.

Colonel Bayard of the Buffs was at Shanghai last week for the purpose of inspecting the Volunteer Corps.

The appointment of Mr. H. H. J. Gomperts as Puisne Judge is gazetted locally. It was notified in the London Gazette on March 29th.

We are asked to draw attention to the announcement that the sale of Mrs. O. D. Thomson's furniture at No. 5, Mountain View, The Peak, takes place to-day.

The body of Drummer Wooley of the Buffs, whose sad death from drowning was recorded on Friday, was recovered on Saturday morning, and in the afternoon was interred in the Happy Valley cemetery with military honours.

The Foundation Stone of the Missions to Seamen Institute on Praya East will be laid by His Excellency Sir Frederick Lugard K.C.M.G. on Wednesday next at 5.15. The Committee extend a cordial invitation to subscribers and friends and to all seagoing men to be present on this occasion.

Mr. C. G. Alabaster, barrister-at-law, who during recent years has been Secretary of the China Association in London, arrived in the Colony on Saturday, having come out by the P. and O. steamer Somali. Mr. Alabaster has come out to practise in the Colony as a barrister.

On Saturday the Peak tram service had to be stopped for little over a couple of hours at midday as it was found that two or three strands in the cable had given way. It had been intended to change the cable during Saturday night, and the new cable had been carried down alongside the track in readiness. A careful watch was being kept on the cable in use on Saturday morning, with the result that Mr. Buyer, the Superintendent, deemed it necessary to interrupt the service and change the cable at once.

The Shanghai A. D. C. were playing "The Yeomen of the Guard" last week.

Dr. J. Clark has been appointed hon. treasurer of St. John's Cathedral, and Mr. J. M. Beck has been appointed a member of the Church Body, (see Mr. R. Hancock resigned, for the year 1909).

Two more cases of plague from Kowloon City were reported on Saturday. It appears that there is a serious outbreak of plague at the Chinese city of Samohai on the frontier of the New Territory.

His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint Mr. H. L. Dennis to act as Crown Solicitor during the absence on leave of Mr. F. L. Bowley or until further notice, with effect from this date.

A Canton telegram to a Chinese newspaper published at Shanghai states that already over one thousand merchants have secured sites for offices and shops at Heangchow, the port which has just been inaugurated by the Viceroy near Yacao.

Before Commander Basil R. H. Taylor at the Marine Magistrate's Court on Saturday two Chinese were charged with being on board the s.s. Amoria without the permission of the master or other officer in charge. His Worship fined each of the defendants $25, in default six weeks' imprisonment with hard labour.

At the Magistrate's Court on Saturday, before Mr. F. A. Haselard, a native was charged with assaulting a woman with intent to cause grievous bodily harm. The defendant, who said he was a richa coolie, is alleged to have entered a shop at 17, Gough Street, and attacked the woman in charge with a knife causing injuries which necessitated the victim's removal to hospital. The hearing of the case was adjourned for a week.

Among the passengers arrived by the S. S. Minnesota from Manila is Mr. J. Barlin, Catholic Bishop of Nueva Caceres, Philippine Islands, accompanied by Rev. Fathers J. Ope and P. Pajovillo, two parish priests of his Diocese, and Father S. Sanchez, his private Secretary, and the Dominican Fathers M. Alonso, F. Garcia and U. Herrero. "All are guests of the Spanish Dominican Propagation in 'Gleneskia'." Mr. Barlin will remain here until he recovers from the serious sickness he suffered during last month and afterwards he will travel to Rome and Jerusalem accompanied by his Secretary and Father M. Alonso, Doctor of St. Thomas' University of Manila.

HONGKONG VOLUNTEER DINNER.

The officers and men of the Hongkong Volunteer Corps held their annual dinner at the headquarters of the company on Saturday night, Lieut. Colonel Chapman presiding. He was supported by Captain Thompson, Captain Leung, Captain Armstrong, Captain Forsyth, Lieutenants Northcote, Ross and Kennett. An excellent dinner was served, and "The King" having been honoured tobacco was produced. Lieut. Colonel Chapman proposed the toast of H.E. The Governor, who, in responding, congratulated the corps on its efficiency and promised to further its interests to the best of his ability. "The Guests" were also honoured, and Sir Henry Berkeley, pending, urged the citizens of Hongkong to become members of the Volunteer Corps. The toast "Our Commandant" followed, and was suitably acknowledged by Lieut. Col. Chapman who strongly appealed to the Corps to maintain its efficiency, observing that it was all very well coming forward in time of war with enthusiasm, but in that event the trained man was vastly superior to the untrained man.

Amongst the invited guests were Sir Henry Berkeley, Captains Park and Branch, Messrs. George Grimble, W. A. Dowley, Robert Mitchell, Otto Kong Sing, F. Lammer, E. A. M. Williams, W. Clement Drew, H. F. Campbell, G. Moffat, W. J. Hansen, E. B. Ayres, F. Elphinstone and F. Nelson. H.E. The Governor distributed the prizes to the winners of the shooting competitions as follows:

No. 2 Coy. First Prize for gross aggregate—Sergeant E. A. Chapman. First net score—Lieut. Andrews. Second prize, aggregate score, Corporal Crawford. Third prize, aggregate score, Gunner Catohick. Fourth prize aggregate score, Sergeant Crispell.
No. 4 Company—First aggregate score, Sergeant Major Rogers. Second aggregate score, Gunner Barnett. Third aggregate score, Sergeant Grimsdale. First Range, Gunner Miller. Second Range, Gunner Young.

[EDITOR'S SERVICE TO THE "HONGKONG DAILY PRESS"]

WAR IN TURKEY.

NEW SULTAN TO BE PROCLAIMED.

PALESTINE THREATENING TO DEMAND INDEPENDENCE.

LONDON, April 23rd.

It is persistently stated in telegrams arriving from Constantinople that the Assembly at San Stefano has voted for the deposition of the Sultan and the proclamation of Rechad as his successor.

Marshal Chekvet has telegraphed to the Sultan repudiating all idea of deposition and assuring him that the Army's mission is to maintain the Constitution inviolate.

The Sultan attended the Selamik yesterday in great state, and was loudly cheered.

LONDON, April 24th.

A dispatch from Pera sent off at 6.35 a.m. reports heavy rifle firing and occasional artillery discharges since 5 a.m. on the heights surrounding the Yildiz.

Evidently an engagement between the Salonika troops and the Yildiz garrison is proceeding.

[Pera is a suburb of Constantinople, on the Northern shore of the Golden Horn. It is the European quarter inhabited by the aristocracy of Constantinople, the English, German, French, Austrian, Russian and Persian ambassadors.]

LATER.

Telegrams from Salonika state that the committee of leaders after consultation with Rechad have decided to proclaim him Sultan. It was arranged to attack the Yildiz at midnight. There can be no doubt that the advance of the army has begun, the pickets being three miles from Pera last night.

A meeting of all classes held at Jerusalem has telegraphed to Constantinople refusing to acknowledge the new ministers and threatening to proclaim Palestine independent if the constitution is not restored.

GARRISON SURRENDERS.

The Garrison at Constantinople surrendered as the result of a concentrated attack on the Matchka and Tashkila barracks where stubborn resistance was offered, and there were heavy casualties.

Eventually the barracks were demolished by gun fire.

Later reports from Salonika state that the Yildiz Garrison surrendered without resistance.

General Sheket Pasha entered the city and was cheered wherever he went.

It appears that the Constantinople Garrison had planned resistance and had greatly strengthened the guard-houses, but the discipline of the big guns and quickfiring was irresistible.

Some shells fired by the Salonika troops fell within the grounds of the Yildiz.

The number of casualties has not been ascertained, but they probably amount to over a thousand.

RUSSIAN TROOPS ADVANCING ON PERSIA.

LONDON, April 23rd.

Owing to the failure of the Shah to acquiesce the Royalists of Tabriz of the conclusion of an armistice, Russian troops are advancing by forced marches to protect Europeans.

GERMAN LOANS.

LONDON, April 23rd.

A German loan of sixteen million sterling and a Prussian loan of twenty-four millions will be jointly issued on the 3rd of May. Half of each issue will bear interest of 4 per cent. and will be put on the market at 102½, the other half will bear 3½ per cent. and will be issued at 96½.

FOOTBALL.

LONDON, April 24th.

The Association Cup final has been won by Manchester United, the result being Manchester United 1; Bristol 0.

THE LATE MR. MURRAY BAIN.

At the Union Church yesterday morning a memorial service to the late Mr. George Murray Bain was conducted by the Rev. C. H. Hickling. Appropriate hymns were sung including the anthem "What are these arrayed in white?" and at the close the "Dead March in Saul" was played by the organist Mr. G. P. Lammer. Preaching from the text Isaiah 46th chapter, 4th verse "Even to your old age I am He and to even the hoary hairs will I carry you," the Rev. Mr. Hickling pointed out how God was the great helper of man and said it made all the difference to a man whether he regarded his religion as something to carry or as something that would carry him. Those who regard religion as simply another burden to life had not got the right point of view. In his reference to the deceased journalist, he stated that the truth of the text furnished a clue to the life which had recently passed into the unseen world. George Murray Bain was a truly religious man; but he never gave the impression that religion was to him a burden. He was not so carrying religion; but throughout his strenuous life of integrity he was carrying him. He was broad-minded. This was characteristic of him theologically as in other ways. Amidst his weaknesses and failings, which kept him humble in spirit, the essentials of the Christian Faith bore him along the right way. His breadth enabled him to appreciate the standpoint of others. This enabled him to be in genial touch with the life of the Colony in most of its aspects. His observant alertness, together with his sense of humour and calm unobtrusiveness made him sought after by the many. His straightforwardness, trustworthiness, and wisdom caused his advice to be highly appreciated; and his voluntary executorships were numerous and sometimes arduous. But where he could help he would not stop to think of the personal pressure. He had the secret which Elizabeth Charles so well expressed—

"Is thy burden hard and heavy?
Do thy steps drag heavily?
Help to bear thy brother's burden:
God will bear both it and thee."

He was generous to an uncommon degree—usually doing good by stealth. His monetary help has passed into many lives; his good works do follow with him. Of his happy family life amongst those he loved, no details need here be given. His name is closely associated with the newspaper press, which, in these days, wielded an immense influence for good or evil. For 45 years he was closely associated with the China Mail. The one name will long suggest the other in this Colony. During those years the record of this paper has been clean. Its standard has been high in the endeavour to lead and never knowingly misled. It fell to Mr. Bain's lot to lead in criticism, protest and advocacy during the most turbulent period of this Colony's existence. At that time and since, the best thought and true interests of the Colony knew their obligation to him. While endeavouring to make his paper a business success he sought to serve the community rather than to boom his paper; he spent his energy in spreading truth and right ideas rather than in startling people with sensational headlines. His judgment was excellent. He apologised now and again for positions taken up and paragraphs inserted. He shrank from all that is often involved in Law Court procedure; but, so far as I have seen, the best sense of the Colony stood with him rather than with those to whom he apologised. From the first he showed a deep interest in Union Church and served it faithfully in all ways within his power to the very last. The vacant place will suggest renewed regret from time to time; but we rather thank God for bringing him here and sustaining him in all he did. He was not a really old man when he passed away; but he had in his own way lived much. And now the God that carried him through life has borne him to his reward and to the rest prepared for the people of God. In "The Quest" Margaret Lippincott wrote:—

"I looked at Life—"Give me the gift you hold!"
Sighing, she offered me a crown of gold,
"Nay," I besought, "the boon I crave is higher."
Smiling, she handed me a brand of life,
I spoke to Death—"Unfold your mystery!"
And held Life's torch above my head to see;
When lo! there shone beyond Death's prison bars,
The holy glitter of eternal stars."
So it is always. He who seeks the chief good will ever have the light of life which penetrates the densest darkness, projects its rays beyond the tomb and reveal the living Christ of God in the power of His endless life. "Roll they will bring it to pass." He who upholds the trustful through life will carry us also from the land of the dying to the land of living, there to associate with the spirits of the just made perfect.

His Majesty the King has not been advised to exercise his power of disallowance with respect to Ordinance No. 20 of 1908, entitled—An Ordinance to amend The Interpretation Ordinance 1897 and to remove an ambiguity in the construction of the same.

RANDOM REFLECTIONS.

No lack of entertainment in the colony. The Ward Comedy Company have been with us a fortnight and the interval which elapses between their departure and the arrival of the Handmann Company is filled with the Circus to say nothing of the Philharmonic Concert on Tuesday.

The Hongkong "kid" is nothing if not candid. I am told that one of them, a boy of eight, was taken to see "The New Clown" last Saturday and on returning home confided to his mother the information "Miss Palotta is prettier than you, mother, I should say." Collapse of mother.

The fact that St. George's day passed unnoticed in Hongkong as well as other places within the Empire would indicate that Englishmen have not the same love of country as the men of the other nations in the Kingdom. St. Patrick's Day is dear to every Irishman, and its anniversary is never overlooked. A similar regard is shown by Welshmen for the memory of Dewi Sant, and of course we all know the love of the Scot for St. Andrew. By the way has it ever occurred to you how popular St. Andrew is? He is claimed as a patron saint by both Scotland and Russia.

We who have fumed and fretted because our coolies with a chit to deliver took over an hour to get from Des Vaux Road to the vicinity of the Clock Tower may be pardoned for having overlooked the fact that the Chinese are great pedestrians, but the statement is true nevertheless. We have only to think how difficult it is to keep pace with chair coolies carrying a fare, and if we should be in conversation with the fare we know the necessity for telling the bearer to "Mo kum fai" (that is somewhere near the spelling). Again if you notice the Chinese travelling on the country roads they seem to be moving at a slow pace, but test it and you will realise that the man who is walking without any apparent effort is covering the ground at a faster rate than you can do with your four or five-mile-an-hour stride. There is no doubt about it, the Chinaman's power of endurance and his pedestrian ability are greater than is generally suspected.

The solitary drinker, the Jimmy Woods of Australia, is not very common in Hongkong, though an occasional man is seen going to the bar of the club or the hotel for his "single breaster." So great is the aversion to drinking alone in Hongkong that men are known to suffer thirst because they cannot find a companion rather than risk the opprobrium of being thought mean. It may be that the gregarious instinct which makes Britishers desire to imitate together is perhaps responsible for the many indiscretions which follow "lifting the glass." Certainly it means chits for a larger amount than is altogether desirable or expedient.

If we follow the example of the Californian Assembly all this will be changed. A San Francisco message states that the Assembly has passed a bill prohibiting any person from treating another to beer, whiskey, wine or intoxicating liquor of any kind whatever. The measure was introduced in the Assembly as a joke. No one suspected for a moment that it would receive serious consideration, let alone the endorsement of a majority of the members. As a matter of fact, it is not now known whether the members of the Lower House were in earnest in voting for the bill, inasmuch as it is intimated that the motion to reconsider, in part of a prearranged plan to defeat the bill. There is a small sentiment in the Assembly in favour of sending the bill to the Senate, "just for fun."

What an upheaval in all our social customs were such a measure to become law here! The Jimmy Woods, the solitary drinker, the single breaster, call him whatever you will, would welcome the legislation which saves him from a custom which demands he should occasionally pay for another man's refreshment, but the ordinary man, the man who likes company over his glass, will find himself in great peril. As the old Scotsman said to his wife, it was not so much the drink that he enjoyed as the "here's ta ye."

I am pleased to be able to tell my lady readers in strict confidence that the price of beauty has at last been definitely defined. Of course I know that no woman with due sense of her inoffensive charms would think of taking the remark to herself. Such an impossible thought never entered my mind for a moment. It is designed especially for those who have that peculiar faculty of saying "Oh dear Mrs. B. how thin you're looking, and how awfully pale you are." There is always a lady in the circle who is passed and I'm sure she'll be glad to hear that an Oakland milliner with a few slight blemishes to her natural charms has just made a beauty cultist for $15,000 gold for destroying her only vestiges of beauty, thus rendering her case still more hopeless. Of course, there's no need of a beauty doctor in Hongkong, my dear friends inform me. I wonder?

A Denver woman, who is the daughter of a California millionaire, is suing for divorce on the ground of cruelty, the principal act of cruelty being her husband's refusal to allow male guests to kiss the bride at their wedding, in 1892. Heavens, the brute! Wonder he allowed her to be present at the wedding!

SHARE REPORT.

Messrs. Erich Georg & Co. in their weekly share list, dated 24th April, state:—A moderate to fair business has been done during the week under review in a variety of stocks, some of which have improved in value. The sterling demand rate of exchange on London is 1st. 9 1/2d., while the rates on Shanghai are 1st. 7 1/2d. for a Bank T/T, and 1st. 7 1/4d. for a three days' sight Private Draft, the rate on Shanghai for this three days' sight Private Bill being 1st. 7 1/4d.
and Barilver in London is quoted 2 1/2d. and under this heading nothing has transpired, and rates are unchanged.MISCELLANEOUS.—Campbell, Moore and Company's have jumped from $9 to $12, but no business has been reported. A Him-Bornes sold at $11.30, at which figure shares in demand.

China Providents found buyers at $94, but more are no offer. Langkats have fluctuated violently in the north; from 1st. 910 up to 1st.
1,100 have been the quotations received during the week, but closing rate appears to be 1st.
1,040 buyers. Watsons have been done at $9.
Other stocks under this heading are unchanged,
but without any reported sales.

VESSEL ON FIRE AT WOOSUNG.

At about six o'clock on Sunday morning the 18th inst. the chief officer (Mr. Mitchell) of the str. Satsuma of the New York and Oriental Steamship Company noticed smoke issuing from the ventilator of the number 2 hold. The commander (Captain Armstrong) was immediately notified and it was resolved to run for Shanghai with all speed. Steam jets were run into the hold in order to extinguish the fire, but this method proved unsuccessful. The Satsuma arrived at the mouth of the Whangpoo River at about eleven the same evening, and at six o'clock yesterday morning (19th inst.) a pilot took her in and moored her opposite Woosung Forts where she now lies.Captain Armstrong called on the agents of the vessel shortly afterwards and informed them that the cargo, which comprised many bales of cotton was still burning. The fire took place was therefore dispatched to the scene, and all day long until twenty minutes past five water was being pumped into the steamer.Some idea of the anxiety that must have been felt by those on board may be imagined, when it is mentioned that in the hold next to where the fire originated, there were 75,000 cases of kerosene.The Satsuma had a general cargo on board and was bound for Japan from New York. She is practically a new ship having been built at Sunderland by Messrs. Short Bros., Ltd., in 1901.
Great credit is due to all concerned for the splendid save that was effected. Beyond the fact that the vessel has a very decided list to port and that she is down at the bow to a moment extraordinary extent, no one would for a moment guess the very trying experience she has passed through.No theory was advanced to account for the outbreak.

AN IDEAL INVALID FOOD IN HOT CLIMATES.

The "Allenburys" Diet is a complete food, being manufactured from milk and wheaten meal, both ingredients being largely predigested. It is most palatable and easy of digestion, and can be made in a minute, the addition of boiling water only being necessary. Whilst acceptable to all as a light nourishment, it is especially helpful to Invalids, Dyspeptics, and the Aged.

For Travellers by Sea or Land this complete Food will be found exceedingly valuable.
